VISION

Persons with Mental Illness are entitled to equal rights to lead a life of good quality and live in the community. This will be ensured by providing suitable models of care that are aimed at equal opportunity by means of affordable, acceptable and committed treatment options.

MISSION

To provide accessible and quality psychiatric rehabilitation services, reduce stigma surrounding Mental Illness, network with various organisations for training and sensitization activities, develop manpower in the field and make relevant research contributions.

The Richmond Fellowship Society (India) Bangalore

offers compassionate care and rehabilitation for those with severe mental health challenges on their journey to wellness. We believe in transforming lives, particularly those facing mental health challenges, fostering a journey of compassion and lasting change.

FACILITIES

ASHA Halfway Home

The therapeutic programme at ASHA is designed to let residents develop a sense of responsibility and accountability, covering individual, and family therapy, group activities and vocational training.
